GUN BATTLE WITH MAIL CAR BANDIT SUSPECTS

LITTLE FALLS, MINN., February 19.—Two suspects were arrested here shortly after 3:30 a. m. today following a gun battle with officers and are being held in the county jail here in connection with the investigation into the hold-up of a mail car on the Northern Pacific Railroad last night. One of the men was slightly wounded in the head and a deputy sheriff suffered a minor wound in his hand.

The men arrested gave the names of Buck Allen and Bob Ford, and said they are from Minneapolis. Deputy Sheriff Hub Frelsinger was shot in the left hand and Ford in the arm. Neither is seriously hurt.

Sheriff Felix, of Morrison county, was notified that a car going at high speed was headed for Little Falls. He intercepted the suspects' machine, and when they refused to stop opened fire, which was returned. Allen and Ford are being held without charge, pending further investigation.

MINNEAPOLIS, MINN., February 19.—Federal and state authorities today were searching for the bandit who held up three clerks on the mail car of train No. 2, east bound north coast limited on the Northern Pacific Railroad, shot and perhaps fatally wounded one man, and escaped with registered mail unofficially estimated at several hundred thousand dollars last night.

C. E. Strong, 32, of Minneapolis, a veteran in the railway mail service, was shot three times when he attempted to frustrate the robbery, by throwing an iron bar at the bandit. His condition early today was said to be critical, with but little chance of recovery.

The bandit boarded the train at St. Cloud, Minn., the last stop before reaching Minneapolis, 65 miles away. He presented a pass, believed to have been forged, and entered the mail car. He conversed with Strong and his assistants until the train passed through Duluth, 35 miles from here, when he pulled a gun.

Harry Christenson was ordered to bind his fellow clerks with wire. Strong resisted and was shot. Christenson then was forced to open a registered mail sack, and the bandit swept its contents into a grip. As the train slowed down on the outskirts of Minneapolis, the robber dropped off and disappeared.

Cleanest Lot Of Immigrants In Years

PHILADELPHIA, PA., February 19.—Unusual cleanliness in disinfected the 1,593 passengers of the Italian steamer Ferdinando Palasciano, which docked here yesterday from Genoa, was described today by Dr. Yajia Donato, ship's surgeon.

Three days off the coast of the United States the vessel encountered a heavy coating of crude oil on the waters of the Atlantic. Dr. Donato ordered the oil scooped up in buckets. Then each man and boy, under the direction of the doctor, the ship's officers and members of the crew was forced to bathe in oil, a standard disinfectant. Under the direction of the stewardess, the women were accorded the same treatment. The hair of the men and boys was clipped close, while the women and girls were forced to take an oil shampoo. The performance, except for the hair cutting, was repeated each day until the ship reached port.

It was the cleanest lot of immigrants that ever reached Philadelphia, the officials said.

Up To Every Citizen To Forget Politics, Help Restore Economic Situation, Says White

BY DAVID LAWRENCE (Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)

WASHINGTON, Feb. 18.—George White, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, who has been retained in power by unanimous vote of the legislative committee of the party said today that he hoped President-Elect Harding would find an early solution of the many economic problems facing the country and that Democrats everywhere should lay aside partisan feeling and cooperate.

"I have taken the position all along," declared Mr. White in an exclusive interview, "that this was not the time for excessive organization work and I believe the opposition to me which has recently arisen was partly due to the fact that I favored doing nothing for the present anyway that would seem as if we were more interested in party success than the nation's welfare."

Save The Juices From Canned Foods

The entire contents of cans containing fruits and vegetables is placed there for use.

It would be wasteful to throw away the liquid.

The mineral salts and other soluble substances which peas, beans, and other vegetables possess partially escape into the water while cooking, so that the flavor and savor of the vegetable is impaired if the liquor is discarded.

Cook the vegetable in its liquor, use the latter for making the sauce or dressing; or if the vegetable is to be served in some way not requiring a sauce, reserve the liquid for soups, salads or sauces.

Our Washington Information Bureau will forward a neatly printed booklet containing 216 original recipes for serving canned foods more attractively to any one who sends two cents in stamps for return postage.

Premier Wins Test Election

CARDIGAN, WALES, February 19.—Captain Ernest Evans, coalition Liberal, who was supported by the prime minister, Mr. Lloyd George, has been elected to the house of commons over Jewell Williams, independent Liberal, to fill the seat vacated by Matthew Vaughan Davies, who was elevated to the peerage. The vote as announced today was: Evans, 14,111; Williams, 10,521.

The election was really a test of strength between the premier and those who claim his power is waning, and who predict the downfall of the government. The situation was so tense that even Mrs. Lloyd George felt impelled to take a part in the campaign.

THREE QUARANTINE PATIENTS SUFFOCATED

WARREN, O., February 19.—Adna, Chaffee, 20, Howard Smith, 11, and Henry Smith, 13, of Greene township near here, were found dead from suffocation early today, when fire destroyed a shack in which the three were lying because of a smallpox quarantine.

Will Head Harding Cabinet

CHARLES E. HUGHES

New French Marshals

PARIS, February 19.—The promotion of Generals Louis E. M. F. Franchet D'Esperey, Louis Hubert Gonzalve Lyautoy and Marie Emile Faidherbe as marshals of France, was announced today.

The promotion of Generals D'Esperey, Lyautoy and Faidherbe raises the number of marshals of France to six, the other three being Marshals Joffre, Foch and Pétain.

General D'Esperey is former commander in chief of the allied armies in the Near East. Frequently alluded to as the conqueror of Macedonia, it was he who at the head of the allied armies in the early fall of 1915 brought Bulgaria to terms after a brilliant campaign.

General Lyautoy for several years had been a successful governor of French Morocco when in 1916 he entered the reconstruction cabinet of Premier Briand as war minister. He resigned in March, 1917, and later was reappointed resident general in Morocco.

General Faidherbe, who recently paid a visit to the United States, has a brilliant war record, commanding the French army in the first battle of the Somme, playing a notable part in stopping the German rush in the spring of 1918, and later commanding the group of armies which advanced south of the Somme in the allied operations which checked the German July offensive. Shortly afterward he aided in delivering in this sector the blow which started the great German defeat.

First Woman Fire Marshal

COLUMBUS, O., February 19.—Mrs. Alta F. Gambetta, Cleveland, is Ohio's first woman deputy state fire marshal. She has been appointed by State Fire Marshal Dykeman to inspect hotels and restaurants.

FLOUR MILL DESTROYED

COLUMBUS.—Fire destroyed the flour mill of C. L. Kesley, Grove City. Damage $30,000.

"Gold Brick" Cost Him $600; Made Of Brass

MONTGOMERY, ALA., February 19.—It still is possible to sell "gold bricks" in Montgomery. This developed today when it became known that Sam Katz, a Chandler street merchant, had interested himself to the extent of $600 in a bar of yellow metal that later proved to be a finely polished chunk of brass. Katz explained his investment as due to "too much confidence in smooth strangers."

Two men, he said, "strangers" to each other and to himself, entered his place. While one of them, name given as "Benny Grossman," praised the merchant's brand of coffee and courtesy, the other, "Mr. Harris," casually let it be known he had on a deal to sell a local dentist a bar of pure gold, but any one who would pay him its face value of $3,400 could have it. Grossman suggested a pool to buy the brick, himself putting up $1,000. Another "stranger" who had become interested in the discussion contributed $100 and Katz put in $600 as his share. The brick was left with Katz until the remainder of the money was put up. He still has it.

Belated Touch Of Winter Hits The Southwest

KANSAS CITY, MO., February 19.—A belated touch of winter came to the southwest today. Snow, ranging from 4 to 15 inches, was reported from various points in Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Arkansas with the storm steadily moving northward. Missouri towns reported lowering temperatures with prospect of snow.

A fifteen inch precipitation was reported from Fort Smith, Arkansas, the heaviest there in years. Oklahoma City had received twelve inches early today with no signs of the storm's abatement. In some parts of Kansas, winds were accompanying the storm.

Horticulturists generally were said to be apprehensive as the mild weather of the last few weeks has started fruit tree buds in some localities.

REPUBLIC OF GEORGIA OVERRUN BY HORDES OF RUSSIAN BOLSHEVIKI

CONSTANTINOPLE, February 19.—The republic of Georgia has been virtually overrun by Russian soviet forces who are threatening if they have not already occupied the city of Tiflis, capital of the republic, from which the Georgian government has fled.

Georgian soviet elements took possession of the capital after the government's departure.

Advices received here indicate that three Russian divisions marched up to the "Paris of the east" from the north, desolate and frozen plains of Armenia, while other Bolshevik forces crossed the eastern shoulder of the mountain range, and invaded Georgia from that quarter. Belief is expressed here that Moscow desires to hold Tiflis as a base from which the soviet government can direct the advance of troops through Persia.

Several Americans are known to have been in Tiflis recently, but it is believed they made their escape to Batumi, where the United States torpedo destroyers Barber and Whipple, are anchored.

The advance upon Tiflis was ostensibly caused by a controversy over a neutral zone in the borderland district between Georgia and Armenia. Demands were sent by Armenia to Georgia asking that the latter withdraw its forces from the neutral zone on February 14. It being declared that Georgia was bound to do this under an old agreement, Georgia refused to accede to the demand, and then the Armenians advanced a few troops, which were attacked by the Georgians. The Russian soviet government then ordered its forces forward to assist its ally, Armenia.

Challenges Harding For Game With Job As Stake

ST. AUGUSTINE, FLA., February 19.—(By the Associated Press)—Another projected classic of the world of sport was by the boards today when President-elect Harding declined a challenge from the postmaster at Greenville, S. C., to match skill with him on the golf links with a re-appointment to the postmastership as a stake.

To the challenger's manager, Mr. Harding wrote that he regarded himself as only a miserable player and was unwilling to "have the administration weakened by basing his attitude on my ineptness at golf."

But he added that he liked the postmaster's "sporty inclination" and if the conditions of the challenge were removed, he was willing to accept a match whenever opportunity offered.

The proposal to play for the postmastership was made in formal fashion by Louis Sherfess, who described himself as self-appointed manager of the postmaster, Thomas Page, a Wilson appointee.

Writing to Mr. Sherfess, the president-elect said to Mr. Page that he felt it would be safer to recommend him on the advice of his friends than to risk the appointment on the fortunes of the links.

"As a matter of fact," Mr. Harding's letter added, "I am giving no consideration at this time to any of the district appointments and I take it that Mr. Page can sit easy for the present and have no worry about his situation. The ultimate course of the administration is quite another matter, though I am sure there has not been a definite policy decided upon."

OFFERS $10,000 REWARD FOR THE ARREST OF SLAYERS

CLEVELAND, O., February 19.—Cuyahoga county commissioners today voted a reward of $10,000 for information leading to the arrest of the slayers of Louise Wolf and Mabel Foster, Parma Heights High School teachers, who were beaten to death on the village roadside late last Wednesday.

The reward was voted by the county commissioners after hearing representatives of six separate civic organizations urge the necessity for taking such action.

Two men are being held by police today in connection with the crime. Police say the men visited a farmer in Parma about the hour the murder was committed. The men say it is alleged, that their visit occurred on Tuesday, the day before the murder.

Furnals of the two victims were held this afternoon.

SENTENCED TO THE CHAIR FOR KILLING DETECTIVE

TOLEDO, O., February 19.—Special arrangements to guard Royce Richardson were made at the Lucas county jail today. An extra heavily armed guard was being kept both inside and outside of the jail.

Richardson last night was sentenced to die in the electric chair June 10, when a jury in Judge Curtis Johnson's court Friday night found him guilty of first degree murder in the killing of Detective Louis Schroeder.

When approached this morning the negro slayer maintained his air of calm and steadfastly stuck to his original story. His only comment was: "I didn't do any shooting."

A motion for a new trial by Richardson's attorneys was overruled.

Caruso's Fight For His Life Appears Won

NEW YORK, February 19.—Enrico Caruso's struggle for life which began last Tuesday night when he suffered a heart attack, apparently has been won, Dr. Antonio Stella, his personal physician, said today.

"There still is danger of another relapse," Dr. Stella added, "but he assured me he was satisfied with the singer's condition and was confident he would get well."

Throughout the night Caruso rested well. He was given solid food earlier, asked for newspapers, and talked for a while, despite the protests of his wife, who remained at his bedside.

CONVICTED OF MURDER

MARION, O., February 19.—Maek Yulick, 30, an Austrian laborer, today faced a life sentence in the Ohio penitentiary for the murder last December of Elmer Edwards during a quarrel. A jury last night convicted him of first degree murder, but recommended mercy. Yulick claims the fight resulted from a good natured "kidding match."

ELIMINATED SURETYMANS BILL

WASHINGTON.—Furnerhouse introduced legislation for retirement of Major General Enoch Crowder as lieutenant general.

Appointment Announced By Harding; Hughes Accepts ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 19.—Selection of Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, to be secretary of state, was definitely announced today by President-elect Harding. Mr. Hughes has accepted.

Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, Republican nominee for the presidency four years ago, was in conference with the president-elect here when the selection was made known officially, but would make no comment beyond an expression of appreciation at the honor conferred upon him.

Asked whether he could go into details about the consultation today in regard to diplomatic and state department affairs, Mr. Harding replied: "You must ask Mr. Hughes. That is going to be another policy of this administration. From the beginning the secretary of state will speak for the state department."

On his part, Mr. Hughes declined to go further than to say "many subjects" had been discussed with his chief about which he did not feel at liberty to speak at this time.

"Of course I appraise it a very high honor," he said, "to be invited by Senator Harding to come into the administration. And I have regarded it as an imperative obligation to accept the offer he has made."

BY ROBERT T. SMALL (Copyright, 1921, by Times Pub. Co.)

ST. AUGUSTINE, Fla., Feb. 18.—Senator Harding's decision to appoint Andrew W. Mellon, the multi-millionaire banker of Philadelphia as Secretary of the Treasury now may be said to be definite. As a matter of fact, the situation has progressed to the point where Mr. Harding is receiving congratulations upon (Continued on page two)

MISS DOLLY WISE

She is here to answer any and all questions concerning love, matrimony, troubles, woes, etiquette, etc. Inquiries should be addressed to Miss Dolly Wise, care The Daily Times, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Dear Dolly—I am 17 years of age and have been going with a fellow quite a few months but he doesn't come to see me very often and says he can't get away anytime he wants to, as he is in the army. He says he loves me one but he doesn't want to come or just come? I like him although he makes me a little sore for disappointing me. Now Dolly, do you think he can leave camp when he wants to? He is only 19 and says he never will find another girl he loves as he does me. Do you think he knows it or just thinks it? I never fail getting two letters a week from him. I think there must be something in the wind don't you? And another thing, Dolly, do you think it would be all right to marry a fellow in the army?

MUSHY.
You are so young to think seriously of loving any man. Why not be just good friends with him? Being in the army, he really can't get away very often. Both of you are too young to think of love. Later on when you are older you become more settled, and this affair will seem rather frivolous. It is alright to marry an army man, but wait a little longer, as conditions now are so unsettled.

Dear Dolly—I am in love with a man in your city and I would like for you to publish in your paper whether work is easy to get. I receive your paper every day.

GANTON KID.
A few months ago there was work for everyone, but now, of course, conditions have changed decidedly. So, would advise to stick to your job there.

Dear Dolly—As you have helped so many I have come to you for help. I have two boys in the army. One is twenty-one, the other nineteen. I need one of them at home to help me. Could I get one out or would you please tell me how to go at it to get one out? I would thank you very much for your information.

MRS. S. W. C.
Would advise you to go to the Red Cross, Seventh floor of the First National Bank Building.

Spanish Student—I can't give you the names you request and would advise you to communicate with newspapers. Write to one or two of the principal cities in South America. Probably the "Independent" at Manila, the "Port of Spain Gazette," at Port of Spain, Trinidad, West Indies, the "Argos" at the same place or "La Prensa," Canal St., New York city could give you some information.

Dear Miss Wise—As you have helped so many other people in time of need I have come to you to answer a question for me. Dolly, I have a young daughter who is in the second grade of High School. She has a great many friends who keep asking her to take care of their children. Now this happens three or four afternoons a week and as she is out of school till five-thirty or six o'clock it throws her till eleven-thirty and sometimes later than that getting to bed. The only place she goes to is to church meetings. Now Dolly, her health is breaking and I have tried all the doctors in town but they don't seem to do her any good. She is very nervous and excitable and always cold. What shall I do? Take her out of school which I know would break her heart, or put her end to her staying with children. She just weighs 60 pounds.

WORRIED-MOTHER.
Don't permit her to look after the children. She should rest as much as possible for an hour or two after school then prepare her lessons. She may be anxious, which condition demands a tonic. This would build her up, so to speak, and improve her general condition.

Meet me at Nye's Fountain.

SOCIETY

A Valentine party last evening at the home of Miss Lena Frick on Fourth street brought together twenty-five members of the Mizpah class of the United Brethren church. Hearts and cupid were used for decorating the rooms. After the business session the time was passed with matching valentines and playing games. Miss Katherine Widdig and Mrs. Albert Reinhardt winning the prizes. Plans were made for the class to hold a bake sale at Moeller's meat market in the near future. At the close of the evening, the hostess served tempting refreshments.

On Monday evening, at 7:30, the team of Mrs. John Dennison will meet at Trinity church to plan ways and means of boosting the attendance of the special services soon to be held at the church. Your Manners

IT IS CORRECT

When invited to a wedding reception or breakfast to proceed at once to the home of the bride's parents after the church function.

For women at a wedding reception or breakfast to lay aside their wraps. For men at a wedding reception to leave their hats, overcoats and canes in the dressing room.

At a large wedding reception for the guests to fall into line to greet the bride and groom.

For the ushers at a wedding reception to introduce to the bride and groom the guests with whom they are not acquainted.

IT IS NOT CORRECT

For men at a wedding to keep on the right hand glove.

To congratulate the groom at a wedding reception before offering good wishes to the bride.

To make lengthy speeches to the bride and groom when others are waiting to speak to them.

For a lady at a wedding reception to require an introduction to the usher who offers his services in introducing them to the bride and groom.

To detain in conversation the mother of the bride at a wedding reception when there is a large gathering.

The Whatsoever Guild of All Saints church will meet for the Lenten sewing Monday evening at the home of Misses Agnes and Mary McMurray on Jackson street.

The Ladies Aid Society of Trinity church will hold a business meeting in the church social rooms Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Mrs. C. C. Conover will lead the devotions. Later in the evening the ladies will be joined by their husbands and families for a dinner and Martha Washington party.

The committee of ladies in charge of this delightful affair is Mrs. Hattie Jenkins, chairman; and assistants, Mrs. T. W. Hill, Mrs. Harry Granston, Mrs. J. T. Breese, Mrs. John Dennison and Mrs. J. T. Taylor, all of whom will be addressed in colonial costumes.

The music will be in charge of Miss Alice Blake and the social part of the program will be in the hands of Mr. C. Bennett, Mr. Milton Slumway, Mr. Arthur Stewart and Mr. R. J. Ishmael. This social is in answer to the invitations sent out and is especially for the members of the Ladies Aid and their families. The ladies are preparing to entertain three hundred guests.

We go any where and time. Call No. 825 and see. 18-71

Her Own Career

(BY PHYLLIS PHILLIPS)

THE RETURN TO REALITY
The noisy rattling of a milk wagon finally brought her back to the every-day world, of which she was still a part, and with a final sob she looked up, fumbled for her handkerchief, found that she had forgotten it, and used the back of her hand effectively in wiping away the tears.

Fedya, seeing her distress, stopped over and mopped her flushed face with his own handkerchief. At this she broke into a radiant smile, a smile which made the man's heart ache for love of her and her beauty.

"How you seem to me now, as you smile through those woman's tears of yours, my Gwendolyn, you will never understand. It is too lofty for me to express myself to any one on earth," he said to her, caressing her forehead-like face in his hands for a fleeting moment, as she finished wiping the tear stains away.

"Now I am quite all right, Fedya," answered Gwenda, merrily, as she sprang to her feet. She then stood and stretched her long, graceful body to its utmost, flinging her arms high in the air as she did so. "But it is terribly late. We must go, really. Fedya, or Fern will be worried about me. She thinks I am too simple to be allowed to wander about by myself in this city of yours, especially at night time. And I rather suppose I am."

She got into her wraps quickly and then with a last lingering look around the room, as though she would burn

BILLY WHISKER

"You see it is this way, Mr. Billy Whisker," Prince said one day in explanation of the horses' actions. "I like you well enough, but I can't stand the perfume you use."

"As for me," said Major, "I always dislike whiskers on anything but a man."

"I can return the compliment," said Billy. "I should like you well enough, were it not for your broad forehead and long kicking legs."

At this remark both horses laughed to themselves to find that Billy had given them as good as they sent and they began to like him better, for they thought he was a brave go to tell what he thought of them to their faces.

"I suppose you and your wife are coming to the club tonight," said a red rooster, as she stood by the watering trough in the big stable yard, where all the cows, horses, sheep and goats were turned loose on hot summer nights.

"Club," repeated Billy. "Why I never knew you had one."

"Do you mean to say that you have not observed the invitations flying all day?"

"I wish you would stop talking in riddles and explain to me what you mean by club and invitations flying, unless you are crazy and don't know what you are talking about."

"I am no more crazy than you are and if you will come over here in the shade I will explain myself more fully."

The animals on this farm have for years had what they call the Barnyard Social Club, which meets in this yard under that wide-spreading elm tree, once a month, and when the day is decided upon the club throws off its dead leaves and lets them fly in all directions to notify members that there will be a club meeting under its branches that night. The day depends upon the weather and the full moon, night, free from clouds and wind, so that the audience can hear the speakers plainly.

"Speakers! Who in the world comes to lecture to a lot of horses, cows and pigs?"

"No person, of course, but the animals themselves lecture. The chickens, geese, turkeys and ducks have a club of their own called The Quack and Cackle Club, and they hold their meetings over in yonder old farm wagon that you see standing under that large elm tree which is a mate to this one. You must surely attend one of their meetings some night, for they are great fun and when they all get to quacking and cackling you would be reminded of a ladies' afternoon reception in the city, where everyone is talking at once. Well, I must be going, for it is near milking time. Ta, ta, I hope to see you at the club tonight. The time is half after eight."

"Hullo, did you hear what she said?"

"Yes, Billy, I did, and I am sure it would be most interesting to go."

"You stay here while I go and inquire more about it," said Billy.

"Very well, I will be on this pile of straw and take a nap while you are away."

Billy walked off and began to look for sheep, as he knew he could give him the best information concerning anything that was going on about the farm, since he was never tied up or shut up anywhere and so could rove at will and talk to any of the stock whenever he felt like it.

Billy bleated out Sheep's name until his throat was sore, but no Sheep answered. "Where in the world can the dog be?" he mused to himself all out of patience, and he was just about to look for information from some other quarter when he saw Sheep coming over the hill with Violet and Frisky.

(Sheep tells Billy more of the club.)

Up To Every Citizen

I shall, of course, hold the new administration to a strict accountability for all its acts. I am planning the closest kind of cooperation between the Democratic national committee and the leaders of the Democratic minority in both Houses of Congress with the objective of helping frame legislation on great issues as they arise and with the object of referring to the country in 1922 and 1924 all the suggestions of constructive policy that will have been made so that the nation may compare them with what has actually been done.

RHEUMATISM—RELIEF

From Its Dreadful Pains and Aches, Stiffness, Soreness—

It properly is to be sought in a good blood medicine, because authorities say rheumatism is a blood disease; acid has entered the blood, settling in the muscles and joints. That's what makes the sharp, sudden, shot-like pains, causing you to jump and cringe in agony.

Hood's Sarsaparilla, comprising remedies that every physician prescribes for rheumatism, combined with other blood-purifying, tonic and strength-building ingredients in a formula easily superior in make-up and in curative power. It does give positive relief. Thousands say so. So will you. For a fine laxative take Hood's Pills.

SULPHUR IS BEST TO CLEAR UP UGLY, BROKEN OUT SKIN

Any breaking out or skin irritation on face, neck or body is overcome quickest by applying Mentho-Sulphur, says a noted skin specialist. Because of its germ destroying properties, nothing has ever been found to take the place of this sulphur preparation that instantly brings ease from the itching, burning and irritation.

Mentho-Sulphur heals eczema right up, leaving the skin clear and smooth. It seldom fails to relieve the torment or disfigurement. A little jar of Mentho-Sulphur may be obtained at any drug store. It is used like cold cream.—Adv.

The Country Club dinner last evening in the home of Mrs. Edith M. Walker proved a delightful success, the members having with them Mrs. A. S. Griffin of Cleveland and Mrs. C. G. Petrie of Jasper. Upon arriving, the guests were taken through a merry course of amusement, later being ushered to the dining tables, adorned with sweet-pens and hand-tinted cards which marked the places. The tempting dinner was served by Misses Susan Louise Walker, Lena Hauck, Violet Cunningham and Edna Hauck, during which Harold Walker played a beautiful program of piano music. Among those enjoying the hospitality of Mrs. Walker's home were Mrs. Griffin, Mrs. Petrie, Mrs. W. G. Cheney, Mrs. Chris Meer, Mrs. T. B. Lawson, Mrs. Anna Adams, Mrs. J. F. Carr, Messrs. and Mesdames B. J. Kimble, R. R. Cunningham, A. J. McFarland, E. C. McCoy, J. C. Sears, Charles Hauck, W. L. Rayless, George D. Selby, John Flood, Orson H. Ogier and the hostess.

SOCIETY

Mrs. Clarence Kehrer has returned to her home in Hyde Park, Cincinnati, having been called here by the serious illness of Mr. Kehrer's grandmother, Mrs. Mary Nagel, of Waller street.

Members of the Judge Blair Bible Church of the Second Presbyterian Church will present "The Sewing Circle Will Meet At Mrs. Martin's," in the church basement on the evening of February 24th, at eight o'clock.

The ladies of the Jewish congregation planned to hold a card party Thursday evening, February 24, at the Social Center for the benefit of the Temple fund.

Mrs. Barbara Brandel of Franklin avenue went to Cincinnati today to spend a few days.

MOTHERS, DO THIS—

When the Children Cough, Rub Musterole on Throats and Chests

No telling how soon the symptoms may develop into croup, or worse. And you'll know you're glad you have a jar of Musterole at hand to give prompt relief. It does not blister. As first aid and a certain remedy, Musterole is excellent. Thousands of mothers know it. You should keep a jar in the house, ready and constant use. It is the remedy for adults, too. Relieves sore throat, bronchitis, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of back or joints, sprains, sore muscles, chilblains, frosted feet and colds of the chest (it often prevents pneumonia). 25c and 65c jars; hospital size $3.00

Bound Over On First Degree Murder Charge

Albert Spence of Daniegton, near Russell, Ky., was arraigned yesterday in Greenup and bound over to the grand jury on a charge of first degree murder for the killing of his father. King Spence, aged 55 years, was stabbed last Saturday evening at his home on East Fork by his son, Albert Spence, aged 29, and almost instantly killed. The tragedy was witnessed by William and Charles Spence, brothers of the victim, and his mother, who is almost 100 years old.

Exciting Chase Ends When Ford Overturns And Three Men Are Pinned Under It; Trio Arrested

OAK HILL, Feb. 19.—William McGhee, "Cap" Miller and a man, whose name the officials say is Yeager were arrested here yesterday afternoon after an exciting chase with the officials, the latter winning out.

The men were in Ford and as they neared the livery barn here Sheriff Davis and deputies, who had been to Black Fork on the hunt for a still, called for them to halt. The men refused to obey and the chase began.

Straight up Railroad street the cars dashed and as they neared the Aetna Brick plant, the sheriff's car passed them. The men attempted to elude the officers and tried to turn around, with the result that their machine overturned, pinning the men beneath it. By this time a large crowd had collected and the men were taken and placed in the jail a few feet away.

They had been drinking and the top and bottom of a broken quart glass jar was found in the wrecked machine, officials say. McGhee is a son-in-law of George Culp, well known cattle dealer of this county. Yeager is also married, and with Miller, had lately come from West Virginia and bought the "Sonne" farm near Clay.

Charges probably will be preferred against the men today.

DEATH CALLS COL. ALEX ALTSMAN

News of the passing away of Col. Alex Altsman, who died Friday afternoon at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Rev. and Mrs. Nate B. Crabtree, of Stanford, Ill., with whom he had resided since the death of his wife several months ago, was learned in Portsmouth with deepest sorrow. He had been in declining health for sometime, but the immediate cause of death was paralysis. He suffered the fatal stroke at the noon hour yesterday, and several hours later it resulted in his death, with his son-in-law and daughter at his bedside.

Col. Altsman's body will leave Stanford at 8 o'clock tonight and will arrive here Sunday noon over the N. & W. The body will be taken to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Clare of Scioto Trail, where the funeral services will be held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. C. E. Chandler will have charge of the last rites.

W. B. Altsman of this city, his son, left yesterday afternoon for Stanford, in response to a message announcing the critical illness of his father, who passed away before his arrival there.

Col. Altsman was one of the city's best known and most beloved citizens, and a truly good man passed to his reward when he closed his eyes in everlasting sleep. He was a man noted for his congeniality and sunny disposition and was always ready to entertain friends with a good story. He had a ready fund of them and was happiest when he was surrounded by a circle of friends and he was able to tell his latest joke. He was a man who possessed a remarkably even temper and was the soul of good fellowship. He was true to his friends and never violated a trust he imposed in him. While he had not been in good health for several years, he never lost his ingratiating smile and his hearty handshake. Mr. Altsman was a member of the Hammer Club, where the news of his passing away was learned with deep regret. He was progressive, sympathetic and forgiving. He never harbored a grudge because he always saw the sunshine and not the clouds. He had a heart of pure gold and a kindly, jovial father and citizen passed into the valley of the shadows when he answered the final summons.

Alex Altsman was born to Allegheny City, Pa., January 11, 1844. His father was Abraham Altsman and his mother's name was Nancy McPeely. His father was a native of Lancaster county, Pa. He was one of fourteen children. Mr. Altsman attended school at Allegheny City. He engaged in work first in a carriage factory, and followed various other occupations until 1861 when he went into the shoe store of R. C. Loomis & Co., in Pittsburgh, staying there eight years. He enlisted in Company C, 12th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry July 26, 1862, as a private. He was wounded in the right hip in the battle of Fredricksburg December 13, 1862, by a minie ball. The wound disabled him so he was unfit for military service thereafter. The ball, which was imbedded in his body, was not extracted until January 29, 1863.

Mr. Altsman was married August 2, 1866, to Victoria LaClair, of Cincinnati, Ia. Her parents were natives of France. Mrs. Altsman died September 5, 1920.

After his army service, Mr. Altsman was promoted to a salesman by his employer, traveled in Scioto county, and first became acquainted with the people of this section in that manner. Mr. John G. Peebles was a friend of Mr. Loomis, visited his store in Pittsburgh and became acquainted there with Mr. Altsman, this leading to Mr. Altsman coming to Portsmouth to reside.

R. C. Loomis discontinued business in 1869 and on the recommendation of Mr. Peebles, Mr. Altsman came to Portsmouth, going with R. Bell & Co., and remained there until 1875, when they closed out their business. In 1876 he became a salesman for the C. P. Tracy & Co. with whom he remained until he retired from active life four years ago after being with this firm thirty-two years.

Mr. Altsman is survived by three children, Mrs. Minnie L. Clare, of this city; Mrs. Alice D. Crabtree of Stanford, Ill. and Wm. B. Altsman, of this city. One sister, Mrs. Mary Newell, of Pittsburgh, also survives.

Mr. Altsman was an Odd Fellow, a member of the G. A. R., and of the Commercial Travelers. He was a faithful member of Nigelow church, and was a life long Republican.

The Selby Vets won two out of three games from the High School Faculty last night, the scores being 17 to 21, 21 to 10, 21 to 19. The Faculty played a snappy game all the way through. Prof. Eccles and Prof. Apple being the stars, but not a good enough game to win. Joe Brennan was as much up on his toes as if it had been a baseball game in the industrial league. J. P. Wiles was in the best form he has been this season, putting them nicely to the back line.

Conrad Roth broke into the game on the side of the High School, and considering it was his first game, played very well, staying in his own half and not trying to play every other player's ball.

The lineups were: Selby Vets: Roscoe Donohoe (Capt.), Homer Selby, Brennan, Wiles, Ruggles and Goddard. High School Faculty: Coach McComb, Profs. Appel, Eccles, Walton, Wheeler and Conrad Roth. There were only two things that caused the Bear Cats to lose three in a row to the Selby Vets last night at Wilhelmette hall. First, they weren't all there, and second, those that were there appeared to have a streak of absent-mindedness. Otherwise they

STOMACH UPSET? Get at the Real Cause—Take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets

That's what thousands of stomach sufferers are doing now. Instead of taking tonics, or trying to patch up a poor digestion, they are attacking the real cause of the ailment—clogged liver and disordered bowels.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets arouse the liver in a soothing, healing way. When the liver and bowels are performing their natural functions, away goes indigestion and stomach troubles.

Have you a bad taste, coated tongue, poor appetite, a lazy, don't-care feeling, no ambition or energy, trouble with undigested foods? Take Olive Tablets, the substitute for calomel.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets are a purely vegetable compound mixed with olive oil. You will know them by their olive color. They do the work without griping, cramps or pain.

Read what a Doctor, a Nurse and a Texan say about LUNGARDIA

Wonderful for Coughs, Colds, Difficult Breathing, Bronchitis, Etc.

The doctor says: "I have been dispensing LUNGARDIA for years and I have found it my main standby; time and again where I have prescribed it they tell me of the benefit after the various stages, and they will come or send home and say they want more of it than I gave them. I saved them before."

The nurse says: "I have personally used LUNGARDIA for the treatment of coughs and colds, the first time during the influenza epidemic, when my condition was approaching a serious stage. The results were so swift, so effective and so lasting that I deem it a duty to recommend it to be in all homes as a preventative and emergency medicine."

The above statement from Mrs. E. Vonderhage, having charge for the past five years of the obstetrical department of one of the largest hospitals of the entire South and Middle West, who is likewise one of the best known in her profession.

J. Q. Cook of Frankston, Texas, says: "I suffered with a cough as the result of influenza from October to April. I was unable to work from October 30 to May 15th. One bottle of LUNGARDIA completely restored me to health and to my work. Anyone can write me for verification. I can not say too much in its praise."

Send letters, together with thousands of others, come unsolicited.

Guard your lungs with LUNGARDIA.

Coughs and colds are mere playthings for LUNGARDIA; unneeded for croup. Put it to the test. For sale at your favorite store. Price to $1.50 a bottle—Adv.

Beat Troop 3 The Sciotoville Bantam Basketball team made a profitable trip to Portsmouth yesterday, for they went back with the scalp of the strong Troop 3 team, by the score of 23 to 11.

Walden was in rare form, shooting six field goals, and three fouls. Haquard did almost as well, shooting four field goals. Troop 3 shot and snafu for the basket, keeping it at their end of the floor most of the time, but couldn't find it.

The line-ups were: Sciotoville—Haquard, Walden, Boggs, Dever and Taylor. Troop 3—Raymond Saddler, Hunter, Selby Saddler, Donohoe and Fettermeyer.

Field Goals—Walden 6, Haquard 4, R. Saddler 2, Fettermeyer 1, Hunter 1. Foul goals—Walden 3, R. Saddler 1, S. Saddler 1, Fettermeyer 1.

Sciotoville Wins In the Sciotoville gym Friday afternoon the New Boston eighth grade girls' five lost a 7 to 2 game to the Sciotoville eighth grade girls.

A Benj. B. Hampton Production THE MONEY-CHANGERS Adapted by Benj. B. Hampton from the Novel by Upton Sinclair

An Enjoyable Program is Offered at The Eastland Theatre Tonight, the Last Time When Pathe Presents "The Money Changers" With Roy Stewart. Also Blackford, Baritone Soloist in a New Repertoire of Songs—Ford Sterling in "A Ballroom Romeo" and The New Pathe Review.

Program Tonight A. Overture, Eastland Orchestra. B. Pathe Presents "The Money Changers" with Roy Stewart. C. Pathe Review. D. Ford Sterling in "A Ballroom Romeo"—Full of laughs. E. Blackford, Baritone Soloist. Powerful, thrilling and, in the same breath, tender, exquisite, can truthfully be said of "The Money Changers," which closes its three night engagement at the Eastland tonight is Benjamin B. Hampton's newest and we think, the greatest production. He and Upton Sinclair wrote the story around a theme contained in Mr. Sinclair's novel of the same name. The picture commands interest at a leisurely and tender of the three.

That wonderful stage success of years ago is now in pictures with every little detail of the play carefully given. The picture is said to be even better than the stage play for it shows many things that could not be put into the stage play. Sheldon Lewis is the star in this special feature which shows the struggle for a man's soul. Besides the feature there will be a serial and a comedy farce.
